

TENNESSEE ACADEMY OF FAMILY PHYSICIANS
ANNUAL PRACTICE ENHANCEMENT SEMINAR
Saturday, March 6, 2021, TNAFP Office and Virtually

9:30 a.m. Continental Breakfast

9:55 a.m. Welcome & Announcements – Daniel Lewis, M.D., Greeneville – President
Program Moderator – Wes Dean, M.D., Powell – Program Chair

10:00 a.m. “Physician Wellness in a Time of Crisis” - Jonathan Ripp, M.D., MPH, Chief Wellness Officer, Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai, New York City, NY

10:45 a.m. “Telehealth for 2021: Current State” - Enoch G. “Nick” Ulmer, Jr., M.D., CPC, Spartanburg, SC

11:30 a.m. “2021 EM Coding Changes: The Old is New” - Enoch G. “Nick” Ulmer, Jr., M.D., CPC, Spartanburg, SC

12:15 p.m. Lunch Break

1:00 p.m. “COVID-19 Vaccine Update” - Michelle Fiscus, M.D., FAAP, Medical Director, Tennessee Department of Health’s Vaccine-Preventable Diseases and Immunization Program, Nashville, TN

1:45 p.m. “Update from the Tennessee Board of Medical Examiners” - W. Reeves Johnson, Jr., M.D., FAAP, Immediate Past President, Tennessee Board of Medical Examiners; Family Physician, Knoxville, TN
Special Note: Attendees please submit to the TNAFP (tnafp@tnafp.org) prior to the Seminar any questions you may have for Doctor Johnson related to the practice of medicine in Tennessee and Tennessee medical licensure. This will assist Doctor Johnson in preparing his presentation. Questions will be taken during his presentation as well.

2:30 p.m. “Update from the AAFP” - Shawn Martin, Chief Executive Officer and Executive Vice President, AAFP, Leawood, KS

3:15 p.m. Break

3:30 p.m. “Controlled Substance Prescribing and the TN Pain Management Guidelines” - W. Reeves Johnson, Jr., M.D., FAAP, Immediate Past President, Tennessee Board of Medical Examiners; Family Physician, Knoxville, TN

“Controlled Substance Prescribing and the TN Chronic Pain Guidelines” fulfills the State of Tennessee’s Board of Medical Examiner’s Continuing Medical education requirement of two hours every two years related to controlled substance prescribing including instruction in the Tennessee Chronic Pain Guidelines.

5:30 p.m. Adjournment 2021 Practice Enhancement Seminar

The AAFP has reviewed Tennessee Academy of Family Physicians’ Annual Practice Enhancement Seminar with Controlled Prescribing Practices & the TN Pain Management Guidelines and deemed it acceptable for up to 6.50 In-Person, Live (could include online) AAFP Prescribed credit. Term of approval is from 03/06/2021 to 03/06/2021. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.